

In Person Liturgy with Live Broadcast on Zoom
Liturgy for the Third Sunday of Lent, March 8, 2026

Everyone is welcome to join us in person at St. John's or on Zoom
06:30 PM Eastern Time (US and Canada)
Zoom meeting opens at 6:00 PM.

You can always find the Zoom link for our liturgy on our website at www.dignityny.org. In the liturgy booklet, the link appears near the end of the announcements and just before the Eucharistic Prayers.

When you join us on Zoom, you will first enter a waiting room. We encourage you to come a few minutes early so that you are ready as liturgy begins. For everyone's safety, please be sure that your name is clearly entered so our hosts can recognize you and welcome you into the gathering.

As you arrive, we invite you to share your name, the pronouns you use, and where you are joining from in the chat. In this simple way, we make visible the many places and people who together form the Body of Christ.

If you would like, you may print or save the liturgy booklet to use again in future weeks. Each Eucharistic Prayer is marked at the top of its page (Community, #2, 7, 8, 9, or 10), and the page that follows will let you know which prayer we are using for that week's liturgy.

Dignity/New York gathers as a faith community of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Intersex, and Straight Catholics, along with our friends and companions on the journey. We celebrate the goodness of every person and welcome people of all sexual orientations and gender identities. All are invited to share fully in our liturgies, and all are welcome to the table of Christ to receive the Body and Blood at Communion. At this time, our community is led by lay presiders whom we have called forth to guide us in prayer.

As a progressive and inclusive Catholic community, we are mindful in the language we use. For example, when we pray the Greatest Prayer—what many may know as the Lord's Prayer—we use the words "All-loving God" rather than "Our Father." Many times, the hymnals or printed materials may still contain outdated language, and we encourage you to use inclusive words that reflect your faith and dignity.

In the same spirit of inclusivity, our community has also chosen to continue using the language of the Mass as it was prayed before the 2011 revision of the Roman Missal.

Presider: Nick Calamusa
First Reading: Exodus 17:3-7
Second Reading: Romasns 5:1-2,5-8
Gospel: John 4:5-42
Eucharistic Prayer: #7

ORDER OF LITURGY

WELCOME:

GATHERING SONG: Come to the Feast, vs. 1-2

GC 503

1. Ho, ev'ryone who thirsts: All: Come to the waters!
here is an end to hunger: All: Come to the feast!
and ev'ryone who labors: All: Come to the waters!
all you who have no money: All: Come to the feast! For this is life:
the waters of the Jordan: All: For this is life:
the waters of your birth: All: For this is life:
the waters that renew you: O come to the feast! All: O come to the feast!

2. Ho, ev'ryone who seeks: All: Come to the waters!
hear me and share the riches: All: Come to the feast!
and ev'ryone who mourns: All: Come to the waters!
now is an end to sadness: All: Come to the feast! For this is life:
the streams of joy and gladness: All: For this is life:
the rains that bring you joy: All: For this is life:
the waters that restore you: O come to the feast! All: O come to the feast!

Text: Isaiah 55; Marty Haugen, b.1950, 1991, GIA Publications, Inc.

GREETING:

PENITENTIAL RITE:

OPENING PRAYER:

FIRST READING:

RESPONSORIAL Psalm 66: Let All the Earth

GC 65

Let all the earth cry out in joy to the Lord; Let all the earth cry out in joy to the Lord!

1. Cry out in joy to the Lord, all peoples on earth, sing to the praise of God's name, proclaiming forever,
'tremendous your deeds for us.'

Let all the earth cry out...

2. Leading your people safe through fire and water, bringing their souls to life, we sing of your glory,

your love is eternal.

Let all the earth cry out...

3. Hearken to me as I sing my love of the Lord, who answers the prayer of my heart.
God leads me in safety, from death unto life.

Let all the earth cry out...

Text: Psalm 66:1-3, 12, 16; Marty Haugen, 1982, GIA Publications, Inc.

SECOND READING:

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Return to God, vs. 1

GC 389

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION:

PRAYERS OF THE COMMUNITY: R/: Be near us, O God.

PREPARATION SONG: Remember Your Love

GC 881

Remember your love and your faithfulness, O God
Remember your people and have mercy on us, God.

1. The Lord is my light and my salvation, whom should I fear?
The Lord is my life and my refuge, when I call God hears.

Remember your love...

2. If you dwelt, O Lord, upon our sinfulness, then who could stand?
But with you there is mercy and forgiveness and a guiding hand.

Remember your love...

3. O Lord, hear the sound of my call and answer me.
My heart cries out for your presence; it is you I seek.

Remember your love...

4. As watchman who waits upon the daylight, wait for the Lord.
I trust in your kindness and redemption; and your faithful word.

Remember your love...

5. Before all the mountains were begotten and earth took shape,
Even then, O Lord, you were our refuge throughout ev'ry age.

Remember your love...

THE GREATEST PRAYER:

GC 183

(please begin "Our Ever-loving God, who art in Heaven...")

THE PEACE:

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD: Lamb of God

GC 171

COMMUNION: Everyone is welcome to receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

COMMUNION HYMN: I Am the Bread of Life

GC 828

1. I am the Bread of life.
You who come to me shall not hunger;
and who believe in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me
unless the Creator beckons.

Refrain

And I will raise you up,
and I will raise you up,
and I will raise you up on the last day.

2. The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live for ever,
you shall live for ever.
3. Unless you eat
of the flesh of the Son of Man
and drink of his blood,
and drink of his blood,
you shall not have life within you.
4. I am the Resurrection,
I am the life.
If you believe in me,

even though you die,
you shall live for ever.

5. Yes, Lord, we believe that you are the Christ,
the Son of God,
Who has come
into the world.
1. Yo soy el Pan de Vida.
A mí vengan: no tendrán hambre.
En mí crean: no tendrán sed.
Nadie viene_a mí
si mi Padre no lo_atrae.

Estribillo

Yo los resucitaré,
Yo los resucitaré,
Yo los resucitaré en el día final.

2. El pan que yo daré
es mi carne, la vida del mundo.
Los que comen de_este pan
vivirán por siempre,
vivirán por siempre.
3. Si ustedes no comen
la carne del Hijo del Hombre,
y no beben de su sangre,
no beben de su sangre,
no podrán tener mi vida.
4. Yo soy la Resurrección,
Yo soy la Vida.
Si en mí ustedes creen,
aunque hayan muerto,
vivirán por siempre.
5. Sí, Señor, creemos
que tú_eres el Mesías,
el Hijo de Dios,
que has venido_al mundo para redimirnos.

SONG OF SENDING FORTH: Somebody's Knockin'; at Your Door

GC 395

Somebody's knockin' at your door; Somebody's knockin' at your door;
O sinner, why don't you answer? Somebody's knockin' at your door.

1. Solo: Knocks like Jesus,
All: Somebody's knockin' at your door;
Solo: Knocks like Jesus,
All: Somebody's knockin' at your door.
O sinner, why don't you answer?
Somebody's knockin' at your door.
2. Solo: Can't you hear him?
All: Somebody's knockin' at your door.
Solo: Can't you hear him?
All: Somebody's knockin' at your door.
O sinner...
3. Solo: Jesus calls you,
All: Somebody's knockin' at your door.
Solo: Jesus calls you,
All: Somebody's knockin' at your door.
O sinner...
4. Solo: Can't you trust him?
All: Somebody's knockin' at your door.
Solo: Can't you trust him?
All: Somebody's knockin' at your door.
O sinner...

International Women's Day is celebrated on March 8. This year's theme, "Rights. Justice. Action.", calls for meaningful progress toward equality for all girls and women. On this day, we recognize the achievements, strength and resilience of women around the world, while also reaffirming the importance of advancing human rights and justice.

We honor this day by celebrating the diversity and contributions of all women, including lesbian, bisexual, transgender, intersex and asexual girls and women. International Women's Day is both a moment of reflection on how far we have come and a call to action to continue working toward a more just, inclusive and equitable world for everyone.

Policing, Pews, and Firehouse Politics Event

Mark the 40th anniversary of the NYC Gay Rights Bill at a lively discussion of gay rights both past and present.

To mark the 40th anniversary of the New York City Gay Rights Bill, LaGuardia and Wagner Archives is holding a panel on the evolution of groups that had largely opposed gay and lesbian rights in the 1970s and 1980s but now include gay and lesbian individuals as leaders or advocate more for LGBTQ+ inclusivity. These include the NYPD, the FDNY, and the Catholic Church. Introductory remarks by former City Council Member, Daniel Dromm, to be followed by a poem by LaGuardia Community College alum, Kayla Texidor. Panel to be moderated by historian Stephen Petrus of LaGuardia and Wagner Archives.

This conversation is part of a series of public programs on the Archives' digital exhibit on the Gay Rights Bill, The Battle for Intro. 2.

Prayers of the Community | Petitions | Prayers of the Faithful

On March 15, 2026, our list of the sick, used during the prayers of the community, will be renewed.

Any names that you would like to maintain on the prayers for the sick list will need to be re-added. If there is someone you'd like to add, please email Lewis at prayers@dignityny.org. Moving forward, all names will expire after two months. Please re-add people as necessary. The next refresh date will be May 17, 2026.

In the same spirit, during the prayer of the faithful, we encourage everyone to try to limit their individually spoken petitions to one per week.

Lent: Good Friday, April 3, 2026 at 6 pm at the LGBTQ Center

We will have a Good Friday Service at The Center, 208 West 13th Street at 6 pm. Doors open at 5:30 pm. This will be broadcast on Zoom using the same Sunday Zoom link. The worship aid for Good Friday will be available day and half before.

History Book project to celebrate our 55th anniversary in 2027. A group compiled a book for our 25th anniversary. We have the archival history in a storage bin and before we give the Center our archives, it would be great to have years 26 through 55 recorded by combing through paper files. Certainly, media has changed so it might take different forms. If you are interested in either project, see a Steering Committee member.

You're warmly invited to the NYC premiere of Communion — a true story adapted for the screen from the sold-out Off-Broadway musical, and presented for the first time with the blessing of a New York City church.

Board Welcomes Madeline Marlett

At its meeting last weekend, the Board welcomed Madeline Marlett of Dignity Boston for a term beginning March 1. Madeline has served as a chair of our Young Adult Caucus for the past five years, just completed service on the Boston Chapter Board, and was part of DignityUSA's Leadership Academy 2021-2022. She has also been an educator and media spokesperson on issues impacting transgender people, and has preached for a number of our communities. We are grateful for her "yes" to Board service. Maddie, preached at our Pride Liturgy last year.

Against the Current: Fr. Tom Oddo Biography Author Chat with Tyler Bieber

Join us on March 5 at 8pm ET / 5pm PT for a chat with author Tyler Bieber about Against the Current: Fr. Tom Oddo and the New American Catholic.

About the book:

Father Thomas Oddo (1944–1989)—known simply as “Father Tom”—pioneered LGBTQ+ inclusion in the Catholic Church. In the wake of Stonewall and the Second Vatican Council, he paved the way for those seeking a space where faith and identity could coexist. He was a presider for Dignity Boston and served as DignityUSA Secretary in the 1970s, positioning himself as a key figure in the fight for civil rights. By 38, he became President of the University of Portland, a rising academic star poised to transform higher education.

A tragic car accident cut his life short at 45, but his story and his legacy continue to impact the course of the Church today.

In Against the Current, Tyler Bieber presents a compelling biography based on intimate interviews, personal archives, and never-before-seen documents. The book explores encounters with celebrities, politicians, and Pope John Paul II while diving into themes of hope, resilience, and loss. It reveals a forgotten chapter of American history, a story of courage within the confines of tradition, and a meditation on redemption, identity, and the future of Catholicism. Intersectionality for Prophetically Inclusive Ministry

What does prophetic inclusivity look like in our faith communities at a time when our Church and world are crying out for justice, peace, and equity?

Join DignityUSA and FutureChurch on March 28 at 2pm ET/11m PT for a powerful and timely Lenten reflection featuring Catholic lay minister, immigration attorney, LGBTQ+ advocate and faith-based community organizer Yunuen Trujillo. Grounded in her work at the intersections of faith, justice, and identity, Yunuen will challenge and inspire us to reflect deeply on intersectionality, privilege, vulnerability, and solidarity—and on how we are called to stand together with courage and hope this Lenten season.

This program will be offered with simultaneous Spanish translation, and there will be dedicated Spanish-language breakout rooms for conversation. Register Now

Board Nominations Now Open

DignityUSA is now accepting nominations for our Board of Directors. This is a meaningful opportunity to help shape the future of our movement and organization and to support our mission for justice, equality and dignity. Nominations are open through April 15 and all submissions can be made online. We encourage you to consider nominating yourself or someone you believe would be a leader for our community. Please click the link below for more and for the nomination form. More Information

Reminder: Dignity Philadelphia’s Preserving Dignity Oral History Project

From Kate Carroll, President of Dignity Philadelphia:

Dignity Philadelphia received a grant from the E. Rhodes and Leona B. Carpenter Foundation in support of a project called Preserving Dignity to record the chapter’s history. The project, in partnership with Emma Cieslik of the Queer and Catholic Oral History Project \(QCOHP\), will record oral histories of current and former Dignity Philadelphia members to document and celebrate the stories of our LGBTQ+ & Catholic community. To further chronicle the rich history of the chapter, Dignity Philadelphia will be collecting and digitizing photos, as well as physical documents and ephemera. We will be investing in an archival system to organize these collected memories, with the long-term goal of making them accessible to all members of our community.

Dignity Philadelphia will be holding a day-long History Day event on Saturday, March 14, 2026 at the Church of St. Luke & the Epiphany as part of the project. The event will be a family reunion of sorts, with opportunities to look at photos, share memories, and connect with friends both old and new! Lunch will be provided and there will be stations set up for photo scanning. A detailed schedule and link to RSVP is coming soon, but in the meantime, please visit the Preserving Dignity page of the Dignity Philadelphia website: www.dignityphila.org/oral-history-project Dignity Philadelphia welcomes anyone with connections to the chapter to participate in the Preserving Dignity project! Perhaps you attended a National Conference in Philadelphia or attended services at one point in time. Maybe you had friends in the area and have photos from time you spent with the Dignity Philadelphia community. Whatever your connection, Dignity Philadelphia would love to include you in the gathering of stories, photos, and personal reflections.

The Eucharistic Prayer - Community

(Based on Eucharistic Prayer II)

(Preface below is for Ordinary Time; otherwise it varies)

Presider : All-loving God, it is our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere, to give You thanks through Your beloved son Jesus Christ.

Christ is the Word through whom You made the universe, the Savior You sent to redeem us. By the power of the Holy Spirit Christ was born of the Virgin Mary.

For our sake Christ opened his arms on the cross; put an end to death and revealed to us the resurrection. In doing so, Christ fulfilled Your will and has won for You a holy people.

And so, with one voice we proclaim your glory as we sing:

Preface Acclamation: Holy, holy, holy...

God of power and tenderness, we praise you through your Son, Christ Jesus, who comes in your name.

Jesus is the Word that brings salvation, the hand you stretch out to sinners, the way that leads to your peace.

Eternal God, we had wandered far from you, but through your beloved One, you have brought us back. You gave him up to death so that we might turn to you and find our way to one another. And so we celebrate the reconciliation Christ has gained for us.

We ask you to sanctify these gifts by the power of your Spirit, as we now fulfill Jesus' command.

While he was at supper on the night before he died for us, Jesus took bread into his hands and gave you thanks and praise. He broke the bread, gave it to the disciples and said: Take this, all of you, and eat it. This is my Body, which will be given up for you. (PAUSE)

At the end of the meal, Jesus took the cup and giving thanks to you, said: Take this, all of you, and drink from it. This is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me. (PAUSE)

Presider: Let us proclaim the mystery of our faith.

Memorial Acclamation (sung) (varies usually by liturgical season)

Eternal God, your only One has entrusted to us this pledge of love. We celebrate the memory of Jesus' death and resurrection and bring you the gift you have given us, the sacrifice of reconciliation.

Fill us with the Spirit through our sharing in this meal. May the Spirit take away all that divides us. May this Spirit keep us always in communion with our pope, our bishops, the leaders of our community, and the people of God everywhere. Make your church throughout the world a sign of unity and an instrument of your peace.

You have gathered us here around the table of our Savior, in communion with Mary, Mother of God, and all the saints and all those who have gone before us in faith. In that new world where the fullness of your peace will be revealed, gather people of every race, every language, and every way of life to share in the one eternal banquet with Jesus our Savior.

Eucharistic Doxology And Amen

Eucharistic Prayer #2

*Adapted by Fr. Joseph McOscar, from ICEL, An Original Eucharistic Prayer
Introductory Dialogue as in the standard Order of Liturgy.*

Presider: Blessed are you Strong and Faithful God. All your works, the height and the depth, echo the silent music of your praise. In the beginning, your word summoned light; night withdrew, and creation dawned. As ages passed unseen, waters gathered on the face of the earth and life appeared. When the times at last had ripened and the earth grown full in abundance, you created in your own image humankind, the crown of all creation. You gave us breath and speech, that all the living might find a voice to sing your praise. So now, with all the powers of heaven and earth, we chant the ageless hymn of your glory.

ALL: Holy, holy, holy...

Presider: All Holy God, how wonderful the work of your hands! You restored the beauty of your image when sin had scarred the world.

ALL: As a loving parent tenderly gathers their children, you embraced a people as your own and filled them with longing for a peace that would last forever and for a justice that would never fail.

Through countless generations your people hungered for the bread of freedom. From them you raised up Jesus, the living bread, in whom ancient hungers were satisfied. He healed the sick, though he himself would suffer; he offered life to sinners, though death would hunt him down. But with a love stronger than death, he opened wide his arms and surrendered his spirit.

Presider: God most gracious, let your Holy Spirit move in power over us,

ALL: And over our earthly gifts of bread and wine, that they may become the Body and Blood of Christ. On the night before he met with death, Jesus came to table with those he loved.

He took bread and blessed you, God of all creation: He broke the bread among his disciples and said:

Take this, all of you, and eat it: this is my Body, which will be given up for you. (PAUSE)

Presider: When Supper was ended:

ALL: Jesus took a cup of wine and gave thanks to You, God of all creation; He passed the cup among his disciples and said:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it: this is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me. (PAUSE)

Presider: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

ALL: Memorial Acclamation (sung) (varies usually by liturgical season)

Presider: God most Holy, we commemorate Jesus, Your Beloved One, as we offer this sacrifice.

ALL: Death could not bind Him up, for You raised him up in the Spirit of Holiness and exalted him as the Source of all creation. May the coming again of Christ in glory find us ever watchful in prayer, strong in love, and faithful to the breaking of the bread.

Presider: Rejoicing in the Holy Spirit, your whole Church offers thanks and praise, together with our Pope, our bishops, our Dignity leaders and all those who minister among your people, and those whose gifts and vocations are not yet recognized by your Church on earth.

ALL: We pray for ourselves here present and for all whose lives bring hope to this world. God of the living and the dead, awaken to the undying light of pardon and peace those fallen asleep in faith, especially those we remember in our hearts.

Presider: We pray for those who have died alone, unloved and unmourned. Gather them all into communion with Mary, the Mother of God, and with all your Saints.

ALL: Then, at last, will all creation be one and all divisions healed, and we shall join in singing your praise through our Savior, Jesus Christ.

ALL: (usually sung by all; varies) Through Christ, with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, Almighty God (O God most holy) for ever and ever. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer #7

*Adapted from Marianne Duddy-Burke's Prayer for Mary of Magdala liturgy, 2002
Introductory Dialogue as in the standard Order of Liturgy.*

Presider: It is right that we give you thanks and praise, loving God. You created this world, that you called good, and invited us to become its stewards. Even when we betrayed your trust, you chose to call us back to yourself, over and over again.

ALL: Your Word has been spoken throughout human history through those you called as prophets---some whom we would disregard, but whom you empowered with your passion for our salvation. As we gather around this table, we once again recall your breaking into our world, for our redemption, and your calling forth unlikely prophets to reveal your truth.

Presider: In joyful thanksgiving for your constant, faithful love, we join our voices in an unending hymn of praise:

ALL: Holy, holy, holy...

Presider: In one of your peoples' darkest times, you raised up a light for all to see. While they were persecuted and enslaved by conquerors, you fulfilled a nation's longing for a Messiah who would defeat the powers of oppression. You gave us Jesus, who walked among us, trying to teach us to see as you see, to love as you love, to be as you are.

ALL: Jesus listened to the cries of the people, aching for freedom. He healed those bound by cruel disease. He answered those who were burdened with questions. He challenged those enslaved by the Law to understand its true teaching. He fed those who hungered, and awakened deeper thirsts.

Presider: He gathered a community around him, close friends with whom he shared all that God made known to him. It was with these closest friends and followers that Jesus shared a final meal.

ALL: As we come together in memory of that meal, we pray that God's Spirit will come upon these gifts, that they may become the Body and Blood of Christ. We remember how, on the night before he died, Jesus was at table with those he loved. He took bread and blessed you, God of all creation. He broke the bread, shared it with his friends and said, "Take this, all of you, and eat it. This is my Body, which will be given up for you." (PAUSE)

Presider: When supper was ended

ALL: Jesus took a cup of wine, and gave thanks to you, God of all creation. He passed the cup among his friends and said, "Take this, all of you, and drink from it. This is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me." (PAUSE)

Presider: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

ALL: Memorial Acclamation (sung) (varies usually by liturgical season)

Presider: We celebrate this feast in memory of Jesus, our brother and Savior. We honor the memory of those who shared his earthly ministry, and became the first bearers of the sacred Christian tradition, which has been passed through the ages and is now entrusted to us. We treasure our faith in the resurrection, and the new life birthed in us.

ALL: God Most Holy, keep us faithful to your dreams for us, faithful to your Word alive in us. Help us to hear your voice calling each of us to discipleship and to service in your name. Strengthen us to follow your call, despite sanction, ridicule, and rules that may seem to limit the possibilities before us.

Presider: We pray in thanksgiving, O God, that you have brought us into loving community. We are thankful for those who have worked throughout the years to create this community, for those who gather with us today, and for those who will join the circle in days to come. We recall those whom we love who are no longer with us, and pray for the peace of their souls. We pray for all who seek the fullness of your vision here on earth, and for everyone who works for fuller justice in our world and our Church.

ALL: May the vision of unity that Jesus put forth to his disciples be fulfilled in our day. Let this meal nourish us to go into the world to heal and serve one another in the service of your Word. All of this we ask through Christ, our Savior.

ALL: (usually sung by all; varies) Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, Almighty God (O God Most Holy), for ever and ever. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer #8

*Adapted from ICEL, "Eucharistic Prayer for Reconciliation II"
Introductory Dialogue as in the standard Order of Liturgy.*

Presider: Compassionate One, all-powerful and ever-living God, we praise and thank you through Christ Jesus for your presence and action in the world. You are a God of love and mercy, always ready to forgive. We constantly fall short of your vision for us--we stumble, we falter, we hurt one another--and you invite us again to trust in your mercy.

ALL: In the midst of conflict and division, we know it is you who turn our minds to thoughts of peace. The Spirit changes our hearts: enemies begin to speak to one another, those who were estranged join hands in friendship, and nations seek the way of peace together. The Spirit is at work when understanding puts an end to strife, when hatred is quenched by mercy, and vengeance gives way to forgiveness. For this we never cease to thank and praise you.

Presider: Now, with all the choirs of heaven, we sing the unending hymn of your praise:

ALL: Holy, holy, holy...

Presider: God of power and tenderness, we praise you through Christ Jesus, who comes in your name. Jesus is the Word that brings salvation, the hand you stretch out to sinners, the way that leads to your peace.

ALL: Eternal God, we had wandered far from you, but through your beloved One, you have brought us back. You gave him up to death so that we might turn to you and find our way to one another. And so we celebrate the reconciliation Christ has gained for us.

Presider: We ask you to sanctify these gifts by the power of your Spirit, as we now fulfill Jesus' command.

ALL: On the evening before his suffering and death, Jesus took bread into his hands, he blessed you, and broke the bread, and gave it to the disciples with the words:

Take this, all of you, and eat it. This is my Body, which will be given up for you. (PAUSE)

Presider: After supper,

ALL: Jesus took the cup and giving thanks to you, said:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it. This is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me. (PAUSE)

Presider: Eternal God, your only begotten One has entrusted to us this pledge of love. We celebrate the memory of Jesus' death and resurrection and bring you the gift you have given us, the sacrifice of reconciliation. And so together, we proclaim our Easter faith:

ALL: Memorial Acclamation (sung) (varies usually by liturgical season)

Presider: Fill us with the Spirit through our sharing in this meal. May the Spirit take away all that divides us. May this Spirit bless our Dignity community, and bring us to that day when we will share this table with N., the bishop of Rome. Keep us in communion with all who serve and lead your people. Make your church throughout the world a sign of unity and an instrument of your peace.

ALL: You have gathered us here around the table of our Savior, in communion with Mary, Mother of God, and all the saints. We pray for our departed family and friends whom we commend to your mercy. In that new world where the fullness of your peace will be revealed, gather people of every race, language, and way of life to share in the one eternal banquet with Jesus our Savior.

ALL: (usually sung by all; varies) Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, O God Most Holy, forever and ever. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer #9

Presider: We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant.

ALL: From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing.

You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a parent cares for their children, you would not forget us.

Presider: Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with the saints and angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

ALL: Holy, holy, holy...

ALL: Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God.

To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God.

Presider: Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love.

ALL: Then the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you. On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to You, broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said:

“Take this all of you, and eat it. This is my Body, which will be given up for you.” (Pause)

Presider: As supper was ending,

ALL: Jesus took the cup of wine. Again he gave thanks to You, gave it to his friends, and said:

“Take this all of you, and drink from it. This is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting Covenant. It will be shed for you and for all. so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me.” (Pause)

ALL: Memorial Acclamation (sung) (varies usually by liturgical season)

Presider: Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to You our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice. May the Spirit take away all that divides us.

ALL: You have gathered us here around the table of our Savior, in communion with Mary, Mother of God, and all the saints and all those who have gone before us in faith. In that new world where the fullness of your peace will be revealed, gather people of every race, every language, and every way of life to share in the one eternal banquet with Jesus our Savior.

ALL: (usually sung by all; varies) Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer #10

*“Healing,” by Fr. Diarmuid O’Murchu, used with his permission.
Introductory Dialogue as in the standard Order of Liturgy.*

Presider: Gracious God, source and sustenance of life, redeeming presence to the pain and brokenness of our world, Holy Spirit, who enlivens and inebriates all that exists, we beseech your healing power upon us and upon all we pray for today.

ALL: Down through the ages, you rescue us from darkness. You light up our ways with wise and holy people. You restore our lost fortunes and you revive our dwindling hope.

Presider: For all you bring to our lives, and for all we seek amid pain and suffering, we acclaim your love and greatness, and we join with all creation to sing our hymn of praise:

All: Holy, Holy, Holy... (varies usually by liturgical season)

Presider: Source of our health and wholeness, healer of body, mind, and spirit, we bring before you the darkness of our world, and the pain and suffering of your people.

We seek to be healed and made whole; we seek to be reconciled and united; we seek peace in our hearts and in our world.

We ask you to awaken anew in our hearts the empowering grace of your abundant Spirit, who infuses these gifts of bread and wine with the transforming energy of life, to nourish and sustain us in our time of need.

That same bread, Jesus took and broke, to restore the unity of our broken world.

ALL: Jesus blessed you, God of healing and hope, then, along with the cup, Jesus shared the bread with those at table saying:

Take this, all of you, and eat it: this is my Body which will be given up for you. (Pause)

Presider: Then offering the cup of libation, poured out for the liberation of all,

ALL: Jesus gave thanks and shared the cup in a spirit of mutual solidarity saying:

Take this, all of you, and drink from it: this is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me, (Pause)

Presider: In faith and hope we are sustained, In grace our dignity reclaimed, In praise we thank our God.

ALL: Memorial Acclamation (sung) (varies usually by liturgical season)

Presider: As we gather around this Eucharistic table, we recall God's blessing and love from ages past, and we celebrate anew the gift of life which we share among us at this Eucharistic feast.

May the Spirit of life and wholeness, who transforms the gifts we present, transform us, too, that we may be refreshed in our inner being and be empowered to bring mercy, love and healing to those whose lives we touch.

ALL: The bread we break and the cup we share are symbols of our world of abundance where all are invited to partake of the fullness of life. But that life we often impede by our greed and selfishness, and by our exploitation of other people.

So grant, that in union with all peoples, living and dead, we may strive to create a world where suffering and pain are diminished, where justice and peace are restored, and where all people can live in health and wholeness, united in acclaiming the God of life, whose abundance is offered to each and to all, until God's reign arrives in the fullness of time.

Presider: This prayer we make in the name of our healing and nurturing God, through, with and in whom we offer these gifts, sources of life, love and goodness, now and forever.

ALL: (usually sung by all; varies) Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, Almighty God (O God Most Holy), for ever and ever. Amen.
